

Join the Merry Crowds in Celebrating 1905!

Theodore Roosevelt was President.

The New York Giants won the World Series.

Las Vegas, NV was founded.

The 100th anniversary of the Lewis and Clark expedition was celebrated.

The Institute of Musical Arts (now known as the Juilliard School) was founded in New York City.

The first movie theater opened in Pittsburg, PA.

Albert Einstein had his "miracle year" in which he formulated the theory of relativity.

Robert Koch won the Nobel Prize in Physiology and Medicine for affirming the cause of infectious disease.

The Vermont "State Board of Medical Registration" held its first medical examinations for 6 applicants, at a rate of $15 each, and one of the applicants was a woman, Alice E. Wakefield, MD!

Record of Medical Examination held at Burlington, Vt., Feb. 7, 8, 9 1905

NAME	RESIDENCE	COLLEGE	Date of Diploma	Anatomy	Physiology	Surgery
Van Damsique, Isaac	Minneapolis, Minn.	St. Joseph's Hospital	1904	49	75	70
Latour, George Eugene	U. V. M., Burlington	U. V. M.	1904	62	80	70
Gammens, Jean Louis	Brooklyn, N. Y.	U. V. M.	1904				Endorsed the Special
Wakefield, Alice E.	New York City, N. Y.	Woman's Col. P. Y. Infirmary	1888
Spickard, Dennis John	Lowell, Vermont	Georgetown Med.	1904	70	85	80	Endorsed the
Etch, Nellie Bryan	Baltimore, Md.	University of Maryland	1903

In 1904, Senate Bill 42, "an Act Creating a Board of Medical Registration," was enacted for the purpose of examining applicants for a license to practice medicine and surgery in Vermont. At that time there were 7 members: 3 regular physicians, 2 homeopaths, and two from the "eclectic school of practice". The terms were 6 years and the members received $4 per diem.

